

Alto Adige Pinot Grigio Wines to Try

- 2010 Elena Walch Pinot Grigio, Castel Ringberg, $22 – Substantive, rich palate texture, intensely flavored, complex and very long. Melange of stone fruit, citrus and bosq pear with strong minerality and floral notes.
- 2010 Nals Magreid Pinot Grigio, Alto Adige, $17 - Lively, refreshing and seems to ooze Alpine purity. Nicely defined on the palate showing pear, melon, tangy lemon curd. Vibrant fruity finish.
- 2009 Cantina Valle Isarco Pinot Grigio, $26 – Purity and focus were the first two words that came to mind on tasting this crisp, well-defined wine. Aromas and flavors are an elegant salad of citrus, stone fruit with notes of spice and white flowers. Elegant, taut, minerally finish.
- 2009 Peter Zemmer Pinot Grigio, Alto Adige, $19 - Inviting fragrant nose, lively attack on the palate with very good flavor intensity – stone fruit cocktail, grapefruit, spice and a lovely creaminess that adds texture and weight across the palate. Very minerally with a long smooth finish.
- 2009 St. Michael-Eppan, Pinot Grigio, $15.99 – A little on the lighter side, but delightfully crisp and refreshing with a tangy medley of pear, apple and citrus. Moderately long with a spicy kick on the finish.
- 2009 Alois Lageder Pinot Grigio Benefizium Porer, $23 – Quite rich, yet elegant attack. Layers of ripe fruit – exotic citrus, creamy apricot, spice and lots of minerality. Well defined and focused with a lingering savory finish.
- 2009 Colterenzio Schreckbichl Pinot Grigio Alto Adige - $15 – Lightly fragrant nose with a floral touch. Crisp, lively and packed with refreshing citrus, nectarine, papaya, pear and a hint of creamy spice. Medium bodied with a tangy, vibrant finish.

Until next week enjoy.

Mary Gorman-McAdams, DWS, is a New York based wine educator, freelance writer and consultant. She holds the Diploma in Wine & Spirits from the Wine and Spirits Education Trust (WSET), and is a candidate in the Master of Wine Program.

Related: What's the Difference Between Pinot Grigio and Pinot Gris?

(Images: Mary Gorman and Altoadigewines.com)

Mary Gorman

June 2, 2011 02:00PM